

Featured Artist of the Month
Sue Lowatchie

Sue Lowatchie is this month's Artist of the Month. She was a Surgical Nurse and part of the Surgical Service Department since 1986. Sue and her husband, Frank moved from Ellensburg to Ocean Shores to retire in the Fall of 2017. This is when the inner passion for creating art came alive for her.

She gets inspiration for many of her paintings from the living sea and the timeless ever changing beauty of the ocean beaches and its surroundings. The challenge is capturing such beauty.

Sue enjoys working with alcohol inks, watercolors, oils and lately fiber. This creative journey is a blast for her and it is far from over.

Although Sue has no formal training or schooling, she is proof that if you have the desire to create art you can.

She has been part of the Grays Harbor College Fall Gala and will again be participating at this year's Art Splash Studio Tour the 2nd weekend in August.

Sue's beautiful work can be found at the Alder Grove Gallery in Aberdeen. She is a member of the Harbor Art Guild and loves being involved in the many Plein Air artistic events found all over Grays Harbor. Contact Sue at: suelowatchie@outlook.com

