

February Artist of the Month

Sharon Gochoel

Sharon is an Ocean Shores glass fusion artist. She studied under the renowned glass artist, Richard La Londe. Her art began in oil, pottery, watercolor and the glass. She found glass in 2006 and has worked primarily in glass since.

You will usually find her working in her home studio, designing and making glass art. Among her art pieces are jewelry, bowls, panels and various hanging art with pictorial undersea scenes. She has a passion for vibrant colors that is reflected in her art.

She has won multiple awards, such as “Best of Show”, “First Place in Glass”, “Second Place for Mixed Media “, and “People’s Choice Award”.

Her art is displayed at Sidney Museum and Art Gallery in Port Orchard, Alder Grove Gallery in Aberdeen and Tim Rossow & Associates Gallery in Ocean Shores. Her art can be seen in various festivals throughout the State of Washington.

She is Director of Art Splash Studio Tour of Ocean Shores and Board Member at Large for Associated Arts of Ocean Shores. Should you like a tour of her studio or interested in buying any of her art, you can contact her at the following.
