Artist of the Month for the Month of May

Tom Baker, Woodturner

Tom Baker is our artist of the month. For the last 46 years Tom has been designing and building custom homes and crafting cabinetry. During 30 year of those 46 years, he was with the National Park Service. Tom retired in 2018 as a Park Superintendent and now spends his undivided attention on woodturning.

Tom states "My personal philosophy of woodworking, has always been to provide a "second life" for precious timber resources as enhancements to our daily lives. I particularly enjoy fulfilling commissions by completing projects that provide deep personal connections for my customers."

Tom enjoys foraging in the great Pacific Northwest for much of the wood he uses in creating his wood-turned art. He strives to use wood species, grains and figures that are uniquely intriguing in rustic yet elegant finished pieces.

Tom has won many awards including the 2020 & 2021 American Association of Woodturners Symposium Instant Gallery, (Natural/Edge Salad Bowl) and two First Place and one Second Place awards for Driftwood Woodturnings and Driftwood Sculpture respectively.

He has been a member of the American Association of Woodturners since the early 1990's. He is also a member of Associated Arts of Ocean Shores.

You can find Tom's art at Tim Rossow & Associates Art Gallery in Ocean Shores and at the Sandphifer Gallery in Pacific Beach. Tom is also a participant in the Fourth Annual Art Splash Studio Tour in Ocean Shores held the second weekend in August.

Ocean Shores Library Call for Submissions

The Ocean Shores Library is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. The library has partnered with Associated Arts of Ocean Shores (AAOS) to produce an art exhibit based on the theme of “Libraries,” which will be on display at the library during the month of September.

The library and AAOS are seeking artwork inspired by libraries, specifically our library and this 50th anniversary, to display in the exhibit. Think broadly about what this library means to you and why you think it is a valuable asset in our community.

To submit your work for consideration, please contact Keitha Owen at keitha@osgov.com by August 1, 2022 with a photograph and description of your artwork including materials, dimensions, and year created. All mediums of visual art will be considered and artists may submit multiple works for consideration. There is space for 3D as well as wall art.

If selected, artists must be able to deliver their work to the Library on August 30 or 31, 2022 for installation and sign a release of liability form. Please have all accepted wall hanging artwork ready to hang with picture wire on the back. Your artwork may be featured in promotions for the exhibit. Artists must also plan to retrieve their work on September 30, 2022.

The Library is unable to sell your work on your behalf. If selected, the Library will retain your work for the duration of the exhibit, but sales may be conducted at your discretion.

This is not an art contest, hence there will be no judging or prize monies.

Artists are encouraged, but not required, to be members of AAOS. For more information, please visit www.associatedarts.org/membershipsignuporrenewal.

You may contact Corrine Holden at corrinebholden@gmail.com if you have any questions.

Art in the Library

May— Ed Schroll

The colors of Fall through the lens of Ed Schroll, featuring the impressive colors of New England in autumn. While traveling the backroads of New England in mid October, I found small towns scattered throughout the countryside immersed in color. Nature in all its grandeur. If you have never seen New England in the Fall then travel with me through the highways and byways of the Great North East.
