ASSOCIATED ARTS OF OCEAN SHORES NEW BOARD

We have a new Board of Directors for 2020. Some you may know, others may be new to you but hopefully after you read this you will feel you can reach out to any of us for information relating to Associated Arts of Ocean Shores and more!

President: Jacqueline Horton

Jacqueline raised her two sons in King County where she had a career in Commercial and Residential Finance. She semi-retired in 2011 and began traveling around the US with her husband for many years, staying in Copalis Beach for the winters. Inspired by the beauty of the ocean, canals and more, they decided to build their new home in Ocean Shores this year. Jacqueline has been creating unique jewelry, ornaments , etc. for the past five years and now has a new studio in her home to work/play in.

Vice President: Vicki Garrett

Vicki moved to Ocean Shores with her husband and furry Micky two years ago. Making Pottery is her passion. Having a full studio with kiln at her home and living in Ocean Shores gives her such inspiration. She has participated in the Art Splash Studio Tour, the Art Drives Studio Tour and the Fall Gala. With the beautiful Ocean as a backdrop she feels surrounded by nature and quiet reflection.

Treasurer: Corrine Holden

Corrine's background includes careers in the finance industry as well as higher education. She has masters degrees in business and education. She is retired and lives in Ocean Shores with her husband and two canine companions. Her art form is primarily fiber and you can find her leading a Stitch Meditation group at Beach Tyme Fabric & Crafts every other Monday. She participated in the Art Splash Studio Tour and the Fall Gala.

Secretary: Lori Russo

Lori Russo recently made Ocean Shores her home, moving here this past summer with her partner and two fur babies. She is a self-taught artist, whose journey began in October 2017. To grow as an artist, upon moving here, Lori got involved with AAOS. The Ocean stirs the heart, inspires imagination, and brings joy. Painting makes her soul happy and if her art can have that same effect on the viewer, then she has succeeded as an artist.

Board Member: Andy Kelly

Andy is a lifelong educator who is currently serving as the Superintendent of the North Beach School District. He began his education career as a music teacher, sees himself primarily as an instrumentalist but also enjoys vocal music. He is committed to ensuring that the North Beach School District offers a variety of arts education opportunities for each of their 700 scholars. He is happily married to Marlene Perez, the father to six children and bonus dad to two.

Board Member: Gina McCauley

Gina has lived in Ocean Shores for Almost 2 years. She has been crafting, in one form or another, most of her life. She retired from consulting to horticultural nursery/greenhouse growers in Western Washington to follow her true passion of making things and playing with color. She is a fiber artist, producing whimsical soft-sculptures called Snooter-doots. They have been sold at art festivals along the west coast for the past 12 years and are available in over 20 boutiques countrywide. Find her Snooter-doots at Fir Mercantile.

Board Member: Sharon Gochoel

Sharon is a glass fusion artist and has lived in Ocean Shores for 13 years. She studied art in college, various art classes and workshops. Her art began in oil, pottery, watercolor and then glass. She found glass in 2006 and has loved working with it.

Sharon is a long time member of Associated Arts of Ocean Shores. Her art is displayed at Palette by the Sea in Seabrook, Sidney Museum and Art Gallery in Port Orchard, and Alder Grove Gallery in Aberdeen. Her art can be seen in various festivals throughout the State of Washington. She participates in the Art Splash Studio Tour.
